OUR WEEKLY REVIEW.

THE NOMINATION OF FRED. GRANT DISAPPROVED BY COLORED REPUB LICANS, THE NEGROES WILL NOT SUPPORT HIM. HIS OPPOSITION TO NEGROES AT WEST POINT, THE DAY OF RETRIBUTION COME. LANG TON FOR CONGRESS. HIS ELECTION SURE. THE CAMPAIGN OF '88.

The New York republicans met and nominated Col. Fred. Grant, the son of Ex-president Grant, for secretary of state of New York. So far as Col. Grant is concerned, he has nothing to reccommend him as a fit man to represent the republicans of the Empire State nor can he expect to receive the support of the colored voters when he has been so inimical to their interest. He is the gentleman who asserted that no Negro should graduate from West Point, but not withstanding, this same Col. Grant expects to receive the entire colored vote of the state of New York. Because he is the son of ex-president Grant, is no recommendation to assure his election as Secretary of State. Col. Grant has no political record nor does his social standing of that character that would draw around him the best element in the state. He has done no deed that posteri ty can applaud nor has he a record that the present generation can of this country had a strong appreciation for his father they have none for his son. We don't propose to support men simply because they are republicans, there are as many republicans as there are democrats, to some extent, who are opposed to the Negro. How can the colored republicans then support Col. Fred. Grant, a man who declared that no Negro should graduate from West Point, a miliatary academy that receives its support from the people? If there ever was united action on the part of colored republicans it should be demonstrated in the election that is to take place in New York. The day of retribution for the Negroes of New York is at hand. There is no doubt of the election of

Editor of the Bee:

There are about 32 Bapt. churches in the District, which represent more wealth, I refer to church property, more intelligent from a Baptist point of view and the greatest number that can be found upon ten square mile any where else iu the United States and if figures do not lie, any where in the known world. As to whether or not they endorse. While the colored people represent more religion has not as yet been decided and is therefore an open question. But our failure to harmonize and therefore our inability to consentrate our efforts have been a cause of grief to all who have had the interest of the cause of Christ and Baptist of the District at heart. We have two associations where we ought not to have but one, we had two ministers union but now we have none. Most of the churches are in one or the other of the two associations to which I have referred, some of the most influential are in none and still other great and influential spend their time and money annually Gregory he knows his business. traveling to other cities to meet associations and for what?
